

Support platform for mattresses and fall areas in painted steel

Product features:

Finish: Powder-coated

Product description:

Support platform for mattresses and jump fall areas, made of powder-coated steel

The platform has the function of raising the mattress to allow better management of the same, protecting it from contact with the competition ground.

This support structure is made to measure , based on the dimensions indicated by the customer when ordering.

The price displayed is per square metre.