Product description:

Mondo Pallapugno rubber ball Rubber punchball with a diameter of 140 mm and a weight of 65 grams.

"Pallapugno" is a ball sport played mainly in Italy , especially in northern regions such as Lombardy, Piedmont, Liguria and Valle d'Aosta. It is a traditional sport with ancient roots , and its practice is mainly concentrated in some local communities.

The ball produced by Mondo takes up the graphics of the famous "Tango" football and has the same characteristics as the FIP model.

The material allows the ball to be used both indoors and outdoors.
